TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Our company was formed 16 years ago and has always been heavily focussed on export sales. We sell high-tech scientific instrumentation to over 40 different countries worldwide and last year over 95% of our sales were outside the UK.

Very early in our development we realised that we needed a partner with comprehensive experience in the complex world of export regulations who would be able to handle our business needs.

We selected Access to Export Ltd. and they have been a major part of our growth and success. Access to Export Ltd. have supported us for 15 years and we have recently extended their involvement such that they now communicate directly with our customers and deal with every aspect of an export shipment from order acknowledgement to confirmation of receipt.

If you want to export without high cost or hassle I strongly urge you to talk with Access to Export Ltd. because they will be proficient, helpful, highly competent and very cost effective.

Yours sincerely
